

Music for Four Oscillators

Written in response to Tony Conrad's Four Violins.

Performed with a modular system and any number of participants.

1. The participants pick a key to be played in.
2. The synthesist creates a modulating drone.
3. The other participants improvise over the drones in fifths or fourths.
4. The other participants can come in whenever they please but once in should hold their drone for 30 seconds minimum before going out.
5. Piece lasts for 6 minutes.
6. Have fun!
